

A SMALL TOWN WITH A BIG FUTURE

Thank you for your interest in Mount Olive. Located in Wayne County on the border of Duplin County, Mount Olive is served by a network of highways with US Highway 117 and NC Highway 55, linking the town to Interstate 40 and the North Carolina Eastern Region's Global TransPark. CSX rail service enters the industrial area which adjoins the 3,700-foot runway airport. Seaports are located two hours away at Wilmington and Morehead City.

We are located just south of Goldsboro, a Metropolitan Statistical Area which includes Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, one of the premier military installations in the world. Mount Olive is the second largest town in the county.

The Wayne County Public School system is one of the largest in southeastern NC. Programs are offered to students in Kindergarten through 12th grade.

Mount Olive boasts a four-year institution of higher learning, Mount Olive College. Customized training and programs for business and industry provided by our schools and institutions are a plus in the area's industrial recruitment.

Figures from the last census place the population of Mount Olive at 4,756.

Population within a 10-mile radius is approximately 35,000.

The Mount Olive area lies south of the Snowbelt and averages only five inches of snow per year. The annual temperature averages 62 degrees F.

From historical mansions to comfortable bungalows, to downtown apartments, from reasonable to extravagant- Mount Olive has it all within easy commutes to shopping centers and business.

Beaches, museums, historic sites, state parks, the Civil War corridor, the capital city of Raleigh and the mountains are within easy driving distance. The Mount Olive community supports two parks, Westbrook Park – with its one-of-a-kind Kids World Playground – and Nelson Street Park. Nature lovers enjoy the Cliffs of the Neuse State Park just minutes away. Each year on the last full weekend in April, Mount Olive celebrates its agribusiness heritage with the NC Pickle Festival – one of the best-known festivals in the state.

“As a Main Street America Affiliate™, the Town of Mount Olive, NC is part of a national network of more than 1,200 neighborhoods and communities who share both a commitment to creating high-quality places and to building stronger communities through preservation-based economic development. “